FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CEO to Serve on Meetings Professionals International - Ohio Chapter Board

Cincinnati, Ohio (April 15, 2010) - Meeting Professionals International (MPI) Ohio Chapter has announced that Diana Hisey, EDI's CEO, Chief Creative Officer and Senior Designer and Planner, will serve on the Board of Directors for Ohio Chapter of MPI for a two year term. Diana was elected Chapter Planner of the Year in 2007. The award is presented annually to a member in recognition of association, industry, and community contributions as well as overall leadership and professionalism. MPI is the association for the global meeting industry serving over 22,000 members in 65 countries around the world.

In addition to her involvement with MPI and several community organizations, Diana has also served as President of the Cincinnati Chapter of the International Special Events Society and has been active as a guest speaker for various associations and colleges.

Event Design International is an event management and marketing company that assists its clients with building relationships with customers, prospects and employees through meaningful events. With the advent of social media, customers and employees now, more than ever, have the power to drive new first-time customers to an organization through their testimonials and recommendations. EDI creates and produces live events which serve as a means for customers and prospects to communicate one-to-one with people in the organization who can provide solutions or serve as a sounding board for new ideas. In response to organizations economic and environmental concerns EDI also creates and produces virtual events and conferences which offer 3D and chat features, the next best thing to face-to-face events.

EDI provides services to organizations from both the public and private sectors. EDI has offices in Cincinnati and Columbus, Ohio, Houston, Indianapolis, Los Angeles and Kentucky.
